

Elkhart County Highway Personnel are available to speak to your group or organization on a variety of subjects. Topics include:

- Development or the development process
- Highway funding/10 year planning for infrastructure
- Updates on any current or future road or bridge project
- Technology integration into transportation
- Any other relevant transportation industry matter

Our staff is committed to training and staying up to date on the latest developments in the transportation industry. Our staff available for speaking engagements is as follows:

Jay Grossman, P.E. Project Engineer; Topics include CR 10 project from CR 15-17, traffic signal fiber connectivity, bike and pedestrian paths

Katie Niblock, P.E. Project Engineer; Topics include Johnson Street Bridge renovation, new land development

Tom Rushlow, P.E., County Engineer; Topics include Six Span Bridge, various small bridges throughout the county, wetland mitigation

Jeff Taylor, SR/WA, Manager; Topics include Main St. Bridge Elkhart, Indiana Ave. Bridge - Goshen, right of way acquisition and relocation, long range transportation planning, Highway Administration

As a public service effort, our speakers are available free of charge to Elkhart County groups and organizations. For more information please call the Highway Department at 533-0538, and ask for Jeff Taylor, Highway Manager.